

Company Video

TAKRAF in India

Bearbeitet von am 1. Nov. 2023

TAKRAF India Pvt. Ltd. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Tenova Mining and Minerals working in development, planning, design, manufacture and supply of plants, systems and equipment in the area of open cast mining and bulk material handling. Tenova Mining and Minerals Division is a part of the larger Techint group.

Tenova TAKRAF is a competent partner for the development, planning, design, manufacture and sale of machines and technical plants of all kind, in particular of plants, systems and equipment for opencast mining and bulk materials handling. TAKRAF bulk material handling equipment is used in ports, stockyards, power stations, steel works, in the cement industry, etc.

Mining companies worldwide trust in the operational reliability of bucket wheel excavators, spreaders and crushing plants made by TAKRAF as backbone of their resource production. The TAKRAF product range: coal feeding and ash removal systems for power stations, conveying systems for technological processes, port handling facilities, stackers, reclaimers, combined stacker/ reclaimers, scraper reclaimers, ship loaders, ship unloaders, tube conveyors, bucket wheel excavators, bucket chain excavators, surface miners, mobile transfer conveyors, overland conveyor systems, slope conveyor bridges, spreaders, conveyor bridges, mobile and semimobile crushing stations, transport crawlers.